N. BOARD COMMENTS

Minutes:

Bomgardner: Communicated frustration with the tiered system. He appreciates all the hard work that our staff is performing to provide the in-person and distance learning instructional models.

Collins: She praised the Saturday School intervention at WJHS, and the impressive amount of student production that's occurring.

Hawkins: She appreciated the transportation department update, and thanked the transportation staff for going the extra mile to get kids to school and to support supervision on campus.

Anderson: She thanked the transportation department for all their efforts, and wished everyone a Happy Thanksgiving!

Erickson: He thanked the transportation department, and commented on the effects of the pandemic on our organization, and all that we're learning as we deal with a pandemic. The new knowledge may support us in the future if we face a natural disaster or another pandemic. He encouraged everyone to keep moving forward using the WJHS theme of "rowing together."
